It is past the time for those who brought this ill-considered suit to consider their folly and end it for once and for all. It is a judicial embarrassment, beginning with over-aggressive government prosecutors to a wholly biased judge. In these critical times for our country, the Microsoft case stands out as one of the most biased litigations in the 1990's. That was some decade - a President who flaunted the Constitution to Atty. Gen. Reno who lost her moorings (if, indeed, she ever had any). J. Beales
